2022 GRANT HIGHLIGHTS

United Way of The Wabash Valley | $107,000

Neighbors Helping Neighbors (Community Vitality)

Do you know how to serve your neighbors? This is the question United Way will help to solve through their neighbor helping neighbor platform which will connect willing neighbors with individuals in their community who need a helping hand. Funding will support the launch of the program which has proven success in other communities throughout Ind.

Camp Navigate | $70,000

After-After School Care (Education)

When current after-school programs end, many in Terre Haute recognized students still did not have a safe place to go. Camp Navigate will close this gap by offering an after-after school program from 6-8pm which will provide dinner, homework help, and STEM activities for students. Funding will offset the cost of tuition for families who cannot afford to attend.

Imagination Library of Johnson County | $35,000

Expansion of Program (Education)

Dolly Parton's Imagination Library provides a free book a month to children birth-5 years old. The availability of the program is based on your zip code and Foundation funding will allow Johnson County to expand to cover the last remaining zip code so every child within the county has access. Studies show children who have access to the program have higher Kindergarten readiness scores than those who do not.
