

SUBJECT: CNP Market Notice - National Weather Service - Heat Advisory has EXPIRED

NOTICE DATE: June 23, 2017

NOTICE TYPE: Final

SHORT DESCRIPTION: National Weather Service Heat Advisory – EXPIRED

INTENDED AUDIENCE: Retail Electric Providers

LONG DESCRIPTION: The National Weather Service Heat Advisory that was in effect through Friday, June 23, 2017 until 6:00 PM CDT has expired for the CenterPoint Energy Service Territory.

Per market rules, DNP orders will be suspended through Sunday, June 25, 2017, meaning that Monday, June 26, 2017 is the earliest day that CenterPoint Energy would be able to execute new DNP orders from Competitive Retailers, if the Heat Advisory expires.

CenterPoint Energy's Process for Extreme Weather Moratoriums on Disconnects:

- DNP orders that were previously submitted and are currently in our system were voided / turned down with a Weather Advisory code of V001 – Complete Un-executable on the specific “Date Wanted” that is within the Weather Moratorium window
- New “Same Day” DNP orders that were submitted during the existing Weather Moratorium were rejected with a Weather Advisory code of WTM – Weather Advisory
- New DNP orders may be submitted for requested future “Date Wanted” dates and will be accepted by our system. However, these orders may be subsequently voided / turned down if the “Date Wanted” falls within a Weather Moratorium window.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: This is the final Market Notice concerning this Heat Advisory.
