SHORT DESCRIPTION: CenterPoint Energy holds DNP orders ahead of Winter Storm Enzo.

INTENDED AUDIENCE: All Market Participants

LONG DESCRIPTION: CenterPoint Energy holds DNP orders ahead of Winter Storm Enzo. Given the forecast below freezing temperatures for the next few nights, combined with what is anticipated to be significant freezing precipitation tonight and tomorrow, we plan to hold DNP orders received for Tuesday and Wednesday, and execute them on Thursday or Friday, as conditions allow. DNPs will not be completed unexecutable or rejected, but they will be held and executed later in the week if temperatures and road conditions permit. This includes DNPs that are currently pending in our system for execution tomorrow, plus any that we receive tomorrow and Wednesday.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: We will hold a Market call on Wednesday afternoon to confirm resumption of DNP execution.
